

ETHICS CODE FOR MEMBERS - KEY ISSUES TO INCLUDE

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Outlined below are the key issues Members may wish to include when introducing an Ethics or Integrity Code or Policy. As an Associate Member of ICC and the Swedish National Sports Association (Riksidrottsförbundet "RF") we are bound by their ethics code and policies which are to be found in their respective documentation (see appendix B) and with specific reference, where appropriate, within this document
- 1.2 The purpose of a Code of Ethics is to provide an external system of rules and regulations which are aligned to moral principles, that the Cricket Sweden wishes to apply to all Member Board's members and committee members, officials and staff (and anyone else that falls under the Member Board's jurisdiction), to remind, guide, and govern the behaviour of those directing or supporting the Member in its activities as the national governing body for cricket in its territory.
- 1.3 A Code of Ethics should protect and support every member, official and staff member (and anyone else that falls under the Member Board's jurisdiction which the Member Board deems it appropriate that the Code of Ethics should apply to), and it should not be used as a draconian or highly restrictive policy aimed at disadvantaging individuals. It should be embraced, understood and adopted by members, officials and staff members (and anyone else that falls under the Member Board's jurisdiction), and the Code should be equally applied to all. That said, it should be incumbent on the most senior leadership (including, without limitation, the President/Chairman, members of the Board, CEO, CFO and other senior management of the Member Board) to practice and apply it to themselves, and equally importantly, to be seen to apply it unwaveringly, robustly and scrupulously in order to set the leadership example that others can follow.
- 1.4 A Code of Ethics must be sensible and able to be integrated and applied by all, it should not be seen as a theoretical policy document that bears no relation to reality. If this is the case within an organisation, either the Code is failing, or the behaviours and working practices within the organisation are falling short of minimally acceptable standards.
- 1.5 Outlined below are the key areas with accompanying language that can be used to create a Member's Code of Ethics or Ethics Policy (or which can be incorporated into a pre-existing Code or Policy). They may include some explanatory comments in italics where necessary.
- 1.6 Members will note that the framework refers to the appointment of an Ethics Officer to administer the Code. Ideally this should be an independent person, but if for some reason this is not possible a Member could appoint an existing official, who has the relevant experience, to the role of the Ethics Officer. However, if this is the case the appointed person should be as independent as possible

2 KEY ISSUES INCLUDED IN THE ETHICS POLICY

- 2.1 Set out in Appendix A is a framework of a Code of Ethics that Members can use as a basis for creating their own Code of Ethics or Ethics Policy. Any queries on the framework can be raised by Members with the ICC (through the legal department).
- 2.2 Set out in Appendix C are template declaration forms which Members may wish to use in support of the operation of their Code of Ethics or Ethics Policy.

APPENDIX A FRAMEWORK FOR CODE OF ETHICS / ETHICS POLICY

1 PURPOSE, SCOPE AND APPLICATION

- 1.1 Cricket is renowned for strong ethical values of fair play and sportsmanship, and Cricket Sweden must therefore also reflect the highest ethical standards in its governance and administration of the sport. This is essential to safeguard the integrity and the reputation of cricket, and therefore Cricket Sweden has introduced this Ethics Policy for its staff and for those who direct the operation of Cricket Sweden's ("the Code of Ethics").
- 1.2 The Code of Ethics will come into full force and effect on 01/01/2021 (the Effective Date) and will supersede all previous versions of the code of ethics. The Code of Ethics may be amended from time to time by Cricket Sweden's board. For the avoidance of doubt, this Code of Ethics shall not replace or in any way affect or alter the Cricket Sweden's ability to pursue appropriate disciplinary action against Staff Members under the terms of any employment or consultancy contract with such Staff Member and/or pursuant to any of the Cricket Sweden's employment policies in force from time to time, including, without limitation, any Disciplinary and/or Grievance Policy. References below to Articles and Appendices are to articles and appendices of this Code of Ethics, and references to the male gender encompass the female gender.
- 1.3 Conduct prohibited under this Code of Ethics may also amount to a criminal offence and/or a breach of other applicable laws or regulations, including employment laws. This Code of Ethics is intended not to replace such laws and regulations, but to supplement them with further rules of professional conduct, without prejudice, for those involved in the governance and administration of cricket.

2 INDIVIDUALS BOUND BY THE CODE OF ETHICS

- 2.1 The following individuals ("Relevant Persons") are deemed to have agreed to (a) be bound by and required to comply with this Code of Ethics, (b) familiarise themselves with all of the requirements of this Code of Ethics, including what constitutes a violation of the Code of Ethics, (c) submit to the jurisdiction of the Cricket Sweden's nominated Disciplinary/Ethics entity and further disciplinary processes as laid out in this Code.
- 2.1.1 Each person serving as a director or employee of the Cricket Sweden, or engaged as an agent, consultant or contractor for, or otherwise functioning as a member of the staff;
- 2.1.2 Each person serving as a member of a committee, commission, advisory board or working party of the Cricket Sweden or any associated entity, and each person appointed to represent the Cricket Sweden on any committee, commission, advisory board or working party or in any similar role, and any other persons who agree in writing at the request of the Cricket Sweden to be bound by this Code of Ethics.
- 2.2 All Relevant Persons shall be bound by and required to comply with this Code of Ethics: (a) whenever they are acting in their capacity as such; and (b) at any other time where their conduct at such times reflects upon the Cricket Sweden or could otherwise undermine the objectives underlying this Code of Ethics. All above persons must sign an acknowledgement that he/she is bound by and required to comply with this Code of Ethics, to submit to the jurisdiction of the Ethics Officer, and further disciplinary processes as laid out in this Code in relation to its enforcement. However, he/she shall be so bound whether or not he/she is asked to sign such acknowledgement and whether or not he/she signs the acknowledgment if asked.

- 2.3 All Relevant Persons shall cease to be bound by this Code of Ethics as of the date that they cease to perform the role and/or to conduct the activities that originally qualified them as such, save that they will remain subject to the Code of Ethics in respect of matters occurring prior to that date.

3 OBLIGATIONS

3.1 General points

- 3.1.1 A Relevant Person must conduct him/herself honestly, fairly, impartially and in accordance with the highest ethical standards of integrity and transparency. He/she must avoid any conduct that is inconsistent with or which undermines in any way the objectives of this Code of Ethics. He/she must avoid acts or omissions that give the appearance of impropriety, or that denigrate the Cricket Sweden, or that bring (or have the potential to bring) the Cricket Sweden and/or the sport of cricket into disrepute. NOTE: Perception of conduct is as significant as conduct itself. It is a grey area that requires the relevant person to think carefully about his/her future conduct, long before undertaking any actual activities that may be prohibited under the Code of Ethics.
- 3.1.2 A Relevant Person must not do anything that may intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against anyone on the basis of race, religion, culture, colour, descent, national or ethnic origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, maternity status or otherwise. Safeguarding the dignity of the individual is fundamental. All forms of harassment (whether physical, verbal, mental, sexual or otherwise) are prohibited.
- 3.1.3 A Relevant Person must not abuse his/her position in any way, especially for private aims or objectives. He/she must use the resources of the Cricket Sweden only for lawful and ethical purposes authorised by the Cricket Sweden, and not for any unauthorised purpose.
- 3.1.4 A Relevant Person must report to the Ethics Officer without delay all knowledge concerning any approach or invitation received by the person to engage in conduct that would amount to a breach of this Code of Ethics, and any incident, fact or substance that comes to the attention of the person that may indicate a potential breach of this Code of Ethics
- 3.1.5 A Relevant Person must cooperate fully with all investigations carried out by the Ethics Officer or his/her appointed investigators in relation to possible breaches by him/herself and/or others of the Code of Ethics (including, without limitation, by providing any information and/or documentation requested by the Ethics Officer/Investigators as part of that investigation).

3.2 Conflicts of interest

- 3.2.1 A Relevant Person must not use his/her position or his/her activities with the Cricket Sweden to advance his/her personal interests or those of any relative, friend or acquaintance (whether arising directly or through a related third party).

ETHICS CODE FOR MEMBERS - KEY ISSUES TO INCLUDE

3.2.2 Each Relevant Person shall owe to Cricket Sweden a duty of care and loyalty. Specifically, a Relevant Person must make decisions (including casting a vote) based solely on his/her independent judgement, in good faith, of what is in the best interests of the Cricket Sweden's collective membership and the sport of cricket as a whole. He/she must not seek to advance any conflicting interests, such as the interests of a third party (such as a governmental or political body) (an 'institutional' conflict of interest) or his/her own personal interests (a 'personal' conflict of interest). He/she must avoid any situation that could lead to any actual or perception of conflict of such interests.

3.3.1 Declaration of interests

3.3.1 Relevant Persons must be free from any influence which might interfere or appear to interfere with the proper and efficient discharge of their duties, or which might be inconsistent with their duty of loyalty to Cricket Sweden. It is also the duty of Relevant Persons not to use their position with Cricket Sweden for personal advantage or gain. To that end no Relevant Person shall have an undisclosed conflict of interest.

3.3.2 Where a Relevant Person has, or may have an actual, apparent or potential conflict of interest in respect of his/her duties, he/she must disclose the conflict to the Ethics Officer without delay, and when relevant make such disclosure prior to his/her election or appointment to his/her position within the Cricket Sweden, or, if such conflict arises during a meeting, he/she must disclose the conflict to the Chair of the relevant meeting. Thereafter, he/she must excuse him/herself from any discussions relating to the conflict; abstain from voting (and/or from seeking to influence the vote) on any matter relating to the conflict; and refrain from taking any other part in the handling of the conflict or of the matter to which the conflict relates.

NOTE: Circumstances in which such an actual, apparent or potential conflict of interest may arise include: (a) personal involvement with sponsors, suppliers, contractors, venue-operators, broadcasters or customers of the Cricket Sweden, including ownership of a material interest in such an entity, acting in any capacity for such an entity, or accepting benefits (e.g., payments, commissions, services or loans) from such an entity; (b) ownership of property affected by the action of the Cricket Sweden, or acquired as a result of confidential information obtained from the Cricket Sweden; (c) commercial interests that may have an effect on, or be affected by the Cricket Sweden's action; (d) outside employment that may place the relevant person in a position of conflict in respect of his/her duties to the Cricket Sweden; and (e) outside involvement in civic, professional or political organisations that may create the perception of improper and unauthorised divulging of confidential information, or that bring (or have the potential to bring) the Cricket Sweden and/or the sport of cricket into disrepute.

3.3.3 In circumstances where there is any material change to the information contained in the original declaration, the Relevant Person shall file a supplementary declaration describing such changes with the Ethics Officer as soon as reasonably practicable.

3.3.4 Where there is an actual, apparent or potential conflict (whether noted by virtue of a formal disclosure or otherwise), the Ethics Officer (or the Chair of the relevant meeting, as applicable) shall advise all Relevant Persons of the conflict, cause the conflict to be recorded, set appropriate safeguards to seek to manage the actual, apparent or potential conflict; and have the authority to waive, where considered appropriate, some or all of the 'conflict' requirements provided that any such waiver shall also be recorded. No waiver shall be granted where the Relevant Person has a personal financial interest in the outcome of the matter being considered.

ETHICS CODE FOR MEMBERS - KEY ISSUES TO INCLUDE

3.4 Confidentiality

- 3.4.1 A Relevant Person must not disclose to any third party any information disclosed to him/her in confidence as a result of his/her activities within the Cricket Sweden, save where (a) required by law; or (b) the Cricket Sweden agrees to such disclosure in writing, in advance; or (c) that information is already in the public domain (other than by reason of his/her breach of this clause).
- 3.4.2 These duties of confidentiality will continue indefinitely or until such time that such information comes into the public domain, other than by breach of this confidentiality obligation or until a Relevant Person is required, by law, to disclose such information.

3.5 Bribery, gifts and hospitality

- 3.5.1 Subject to clause 3.5.5, any individual gifts, benefits, hospitality or other advantages which are received by Relevant Persons, either directly or indirectly, which in any way relate to, or which arose as a result of, his or her position as a Relevant Person, could be seen to potentially influence the judgement of the Relevant Person in the discharge of their duties. Therefore, for the purposes of transparency, they must be disclosed to the Ethics Officer who will determine if the gift may be accepted.
- 3.5.2 A Relevant Person must not offer or accept any bribe, payment, commission, gift, donation, kickback, facilitation payment, or other inducement or incentive (whether monetary or otherwise) in order to influence actions or decision-making in relation to any matter involving the Cricket Sweden. He/she must disclose any request that he/she receives for such inducement or incentive to the Ethics Officer without delay.
- 3.5.3 The Cricket Sweden recognises that individuals might from time to time offer gifts and hospitality to Relevant Persons. A Relevant Person should never accept benefits of any kind from a third party that compromise (or might reasonably be thought to compromise) his/her personal judgment or integrity. In this context, perception is as important as reality. The fundamental principle is that no Relevant Person should do anything that might give the impression that he/she has been or might be influenced by a gift or hospitality or other consideration to show bias for or against any person or Cricket Sweden while carrying out official duties for the Cricket Sweden.
- 3.5.4 A Relevant Person may never accept any cash gift, nor should he/she offer or accept any gift, payment or other benefit (whether of a monetary value or otherwise) in circumstances that a reasonable person might consider could bring him/her, or the sport of cricket, into disrepute.
- 3.5.5 Subject always to the foregoing, a Relevant Person may offer and accept reasonable, proportionate and bona fide corporate gifts and hospitality, solely as a mark of respect or friendship, provided that any such gifts or hospitality (or other benefits) that are worth more than those referenced by Skatteverket (skattefria gåvor) (or the equivalent in any other currency), must be disclosed to, and recorded and approved by the Ethics Officer, or, if not approved by the Ethics Officer, withdrawn or returned, stored or disposed of, as applicable.
- 3.5.6 Relevant Persons acknowledge that any gift, hospitality or other benefit offered to them as a result of their position within the Cricket Sweden organisation that is worth more than Skatteverkets regulations (skattefria gåvor) is automatically considered to have been given to

ETHICS CODE FOR MEMBERS - KEY ISSUES TO INCLUDE

Cricket Sweden and therefore it becomes the property of the Cricket Sweden. As a consequence, the Relevant person in receipt of the gift, hospitality or other benefit must hand it over to Cricket Sweden for the benefit of Cricket Sweden as a whole.

3.6 Match-related integrity

- 3.6.1 The following types of conduct are prohibited: corruption; betting on cricket matches; misuse of Inside Information for betting purposes; giving or providing to any Participant any gift, payment, hospitality or other benefit either (a) for the purpose of procuring any breach of the Code, or (b) in circumstances that could bring him/her or the sport of cricket into disrepute. Relevant Persons are automatically bound by and required to comply with all of the provisions of Cricket Sweden Anti-Corruption Code, and the definition of "Participant" in the Anti-Corruption Code is therefore extended to include all Relevant Persons.
- 3.6.2 For purposes of applicable data protection and other laws and for all other purposes, a Relevant Person is deemed to have consented to the collection, processing, disclosure and use of information relating to him/herself and his/her activities, including personal information relating to him/herself and his/her activities, for the purposes of investigation under the terms of the Code, and shall confirm such agreement in writing upon demand.

3.7 Relationships with Betting Organisations

- 3.7.1 A Relevant Person may not have a business association (whether direct or indirect) or enter into any business arrangement (whether formal or informal) with any Betting Organisation that involves the payment of any monies to or by, or the conferring of any benefit(s) or advantage(s) upon or by, the relevant person, either directly or indirectly, as a result of such association or arrangement unless such association or arrangement is disclosed to, and recorded and approved by, the Ethics Officer.
- 3.7.2 A Relevant Person shall be in breach of this Code if, any member of the Relevant Person's immediate family (being a spouse, parent, sibling, son or daughter, or son or daughter-in-law) has a controlling interest in a Betting Organisation, a substantial relationship with a Betting Organisation, or is employed in the day-to-day operational control of a Betting Organisation.

3.8 General provisions

- 3.8.1 A Relevant Person's agreement or attempt to commit any conduct that would, if completed, have amounted to a breach of the Code of Ethics shall be treated as if it had been completed and had resulted in a breach of the Code of Ethics, unless the Relevant Person renounced the agreement or attempt prior to it being discovered by a third party not involved in the agreement or attempt.
- 3.8.2 A Relevant Person who authorises, causes, knowingly assists, encourages, aids, abets, covers up or is otherwise complicit in any breach of the Code of Ethics by another relevant person will be treated as having committed such breach him/herself.
- 3.8.3 Cricket Sweden will appoint a delegate with appropriate skills, experience and standing to act as the Ethics organisation under this Code of Ethics. The Ethics organisation has been appointed and titled Disciplinnämnden "DN" and representatives of the DN are brought forward by the election committee at the annual general meeting. The DN act as an external independent organisation of appropriate standing. A deputy or alternate Ethics Officer, disassociated from the primary Ethics organisation is Riksidrottsnämnden "RIN", and are engaged where the Ethics organisation is conflicted by a matter raised.

ETHICS CODE FOR MEMBERS - KEY ISSUES TO INCLUDE

- 3.8.4 Disciplinnämnden will report directly to the Board of the Cricket Sweden, and will be responsible for Code of Ethics training and communication to relevant persons, and for the reporting and monitoring of compliance with the Code of Ethics. Whether acting of their own accord or on referral by any third party, the Ethics organisation will be responsible for conducting investigations into the activities of any Relevant Person that they believe may have committed an offence under this Code of Ethics (although DN shall be entitled to request the assistance of third parties, e.g. lawyers, to assist in the investigation if and when required). As part of that investigation, the Ethics Organisation may request evidence and/or documents and may hold a hearing.
- 3.8.5 Following the conclusion of their investigation, where the Ethics organization determines that there is a case to answer, the Ethics organisation shall produce a written report setting out their conclusions together with, where they consider it appropriate, recommendations as to sanctions and/or appropriate action to take against the Relevant Person. This report shall be submitted to Cricket Sweden's [Board/Chair etc] for determination as to what, if any, action should be taken. Alternatively, or additionally, Cricket Sweden can have recourse to assistance and advice from the ICC Ethics Officer, should competencies or requirements determine such assistance.
- 3.8.6 The right of appeal is the right of both the accused and accuser, up to the highest level in Sweden RIN and should be made clear in every judgment document sent to all parties involved.
- 3.8.7 This policy serves as a framework to guide ethical conduct, but by no means covers every situation. If Relevant Persons are unclear about the requirements of this policy they should consult the Ethics organization "DN". Relevant Persons have a responsibility to ask questions if they have doubts about a situation or proposed course of action.
